

SUNDAY February 20

One of Gods' most treasured gifts of love is a listening ear! Knowing that He will always hear us is an act of love for which we should thank Him in prayer.

MONDAY February 21

When we're lonely, Gods' love supplies a special pet to fill our lives. Isn't God good to show His love to us in such a special way?

TUESDAY February 22

Isn't it grand to know that Gods' love even covers our nights? God gives us sleep and rest from our labors. Do you know how blest we are?

WEDNESDAY February 23

Are you a reader? God gives us so many good books that seem to come from Him alone. What a wonderful way to teach us and show His Love at the same time!

THURSDAY February 24

What wonderful memories we have of times past? All of these memories are from God so we will remember just how good He is to us and how He has led us over all our years.

FRIDAY February 25

God can not lead us in person so He provides loving Pastors to show us what to do and also how much He loves us. Isn't He great?

SATURDAY February 26

Do you complain about the trials and sorrows in your life? Do you wonder why God allows them? Through His love we grow stronger in our faith by clinging closer to Him, who watches over us with His love.

SUNDAY February 27

I pray each day that you can see Gods' love in every line I write. I know each word comes from God because of His love for me and each of you!

MONDAY February 28

"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." Rev. 7:17 Thank God for this proof of His love and the comfort it gives.

*...pray
with love...*

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
FEBRUARY 2011

TUESDAY February 1

Another month to think about the things God gives us to show His love. First, thank Him for loving us enough to send His SON to die for our sins. What a great love it is!

WEDNESDAY February 2

He shows His love by His watch care over us. Even though we may be ill or have troubles daily, He's always there to hold us and give us strength. Thank Him in prayer.

THURSDAY February 3

Gods' love is shown by the friends He gives us to stay by our side in times of illness and sorrow. Truly we feel His hand through theirs.

FRIDAY February 4

His confidence comes to show His love at all times. The confidence of His love will always be with us. Thank Him today!

SATURDAY February 5

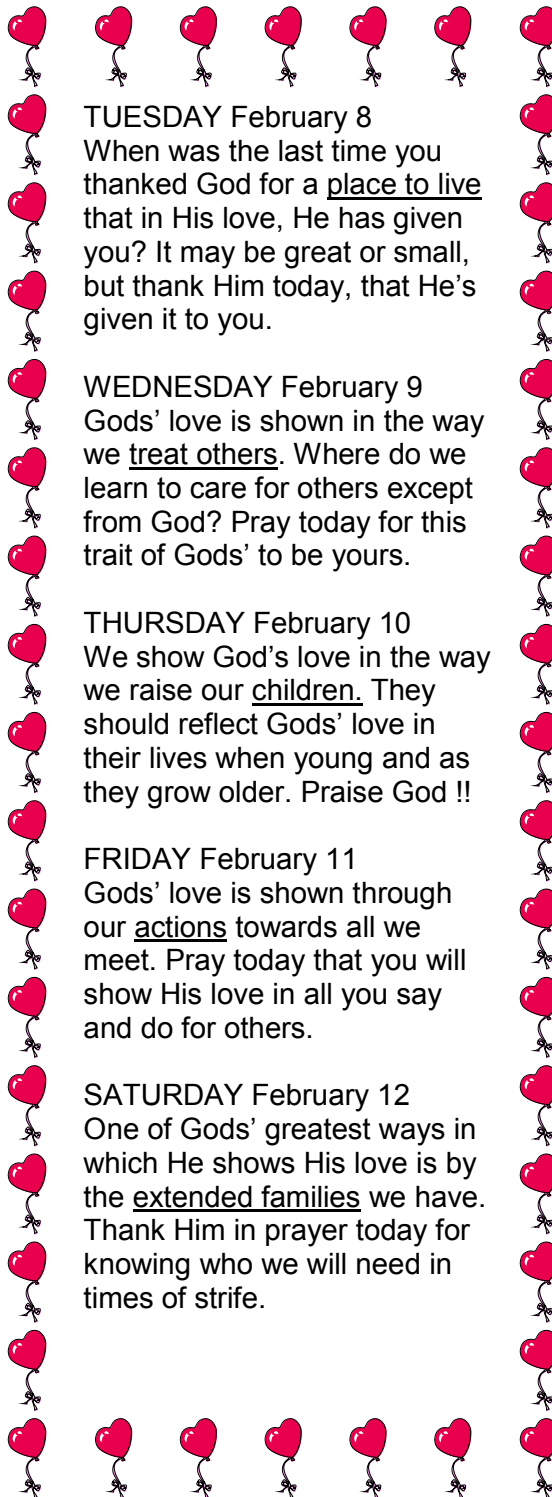

Our prayers to God will always be answered in His love. We can always ask for His blessings and goodness and He shows His love by answering in love.

SUNDAY February 6

God shows His love by providing for our needs. Not always in the amounts we pray for, but always with just what we need.

MONDAY February 7

When we read our Bible, God shows His love on every page. Today, prayerfully, read I Cor. 13 - The Love Chapter and see how God wants us to emulate His love.

TUESDAY February 8

When was the last time you thanked God for a place to live that in His love, He has given you? It may be great or small, but thank Him today, that He's given it to you.

WEDNESDAY February 9

Gods' love is shown in the way we treat others. Where do we learn to care for others except from God? Pray today for this trait of Gods' to be yours.

THURSDAY February 10

We show God's love in the way we raise our children. They should reflect Gods' love in their lives when young and as they grow older. Praise God !!

FRIDAY February 11

Gods' love is shown through our actions towards all we meet. Pray today that you will show His love in all you say and do for others.

SATURDAY February 12

One of Gods' greatest ways in which He shows His love is by the extended families we have. Thank Him in prayer today for knowing who we will need in times of strife.

SUNDAY February 13

Gods' love is shown in how we worship Him. Remember to worship Him in truth and actions and word and deed. Pray about it today.

MONDAY February 14

God shows His love especially in the way He sends us someone to love! Thank Him today for this evidence of his love.

TUESDAY February 15

Thank God today for someone to help us. He's given these to us in His love. Those who give of themselves to help us over the rough spots in life. God is so good!

WEDNESDAY February 16

Can you feel Gods' love when you listen to an old Gospel Song? The writers were truly inspired by Gods' love as they wrote these precious words. Today in prayer sing a verse or two of "Love Lifted Me" to reinforce His love to you.

THURSDAY February 17

God shows His love through the Christian entertainment that He provides for us. Thank Him in prayer today for being able to worship Him in so many ways.

FRIDAY February 18

God sends us those who need help for us to show our Christian love. In that way He shows His love to us.

SATURDAY February 19

When we're not feeling well or am ill, our main comfort comes from Gods' nearness. In this special way, He always shows His love to us!